

Michael P. Maley
President & CEO

Summary

A results-oriented C-level energy industry professional with a consistent record managing rapid growth companies, improving financial and operational performance and customer service. Over 25 years of progressive leadership experience with significant accomplishments in sales, marketing, project development, design, manufacturing, construction, operations, quality, and senior management. Registered Professional Engineer (P.E.) in several states.

Responsibilities at Hydro Green Energy (HGE)

Mr. Maley manages the company's employees and oversees all operations and disciplines at Hydro Green Energy. Mr. Maley was hired in 2011 with the closing of the company's Series-B financing. As CEO, Mr. Maley also sits on the HGE Board of Directors. Mr. Maley's responsibilities are highlighted below.

- Runs the executive management team, which formulates strategies to implement the company's business plan.
- Oversees all corporate, financial, business development and power project development operations of Hydro Green Energy.
- Oversees domestic and Latin American power project pipeline strategies.
- Serves on HGE Board of Directors.
- Speaks at energy industry conferences and other public forums.

Selected Accomplishments

- Secured Series-B financing for Hydro Green Energy
- Over $25 billion in executed Power Purchase Agreements
- Led the development process for ~10,000 MW of generating assets worth ~$5 billion
- President/CEO of Perpetual Energy Systems
- SVP of Fuel Tech
- President/CEO of Alliant Energy Generation
- VP, Business Development at Calpine, Inc.

Education

Northwestern University – Evanston, IL – MEM
University of Illinois – Chicago, IL – MSCE
University of Iowa, Iowa City, IA – BSME
United States Naval Academy

Associations

Advisory Committee, University of Iowa College of Engineering
National Hydropower Association

- 2011-present, NHA CEO Council

Contact Information

Phone: 630-325-5108
Email: mike@hgenergy.com